The Yare & Bure

First Night: Acle Bridge

It will take around 2 hours to get to Acle so make sure there is enough daylight, if not stop at Ludham bridge

Day One: Yarmouth

Travel to Great Yarmouth, the river rangers will help you tie up. Spend the night. Yarmouth has plenty of shops, restaurants & attractions.

Day Two: Reedham

Check the right time to cross Breydon Water (ask the rangers), the journey to Reedham will take around 2 hours. There are some great riverside pubs. Be careful to tie up correctly here, the tide can be strong

Day Three: Norwich

From Reedham the journey to Norwich will take around 4 hours. Take your time exploring this historic city. Shopping is great, but you will also find museums, cinemas and a spectacular cathedral.

Day Four: Beccles

Take in the beautiful countryside as you travel to Beccles. The voyage will take around 6 hours so make sure you leave early. Beccles is a hidden gem with some wonderful shops and restaurants.

Day Five: St Olaves / Yarmouth

Travel from Beccles to St Olaves, stop for lunch here if you need to time the tide to get through Yarmouth. Moor up at Yarmouth overnight, or go a little further to Stracey Arms if you have time.

Day Six: Stracey Arms / Wroxham

Motor on to Wroxham in the morning, around 5 hours, to visit what most call the heart of The Broads. Get some last minute shopping from Roys.

Day Seven: Back to Horning

Leave Wroxham early enough to return on time. It will take just over an hour.

Wildlife Route

First Night: Barton Broad

Leave the marina and travel up to Barton Broad. The journey will take around 2 hours. Drop the mudweight and spend the night on the broad.

Day One: Potter Heigham

Travel to Potter Heigham, moor up before the bridge, then take a leisurely walk along the riverbank all the way to Martham. A great way to see across the truly flat Norfolk countryside.

Day Two: Burgh Castle

Check the tide times at Yarmouth. Make your way through the bridges at Yarmouth, across Breydon Water and moor up at Burgh Castle for the night. Enjoy the birdlife on the mud flats of Breydon and views across the marshland. Leave enough time, the journey will take around 4 to 4.5 hours.

Day Three: Waveney River Centre

From Burgh Castle cruise down the Waveney, under St Olaves bridge, past the remains of the old railway bridge, through the Somerleyton swing bridge and onto Waveney River Centre. Journey time is around 1.5 hours. Moor up here and take the foot ferry over to the Carlton Marshes nature reserve.

Day Four: Reedham

Leave Waveney River Centre follow the river back through to St Olaves and bear left along the new cut towards Reedham. The new cut was dug by hand in the 1820's to provide a faster commercial route from Lowestoft to Norwich.

Day Five: Stracey Arms

Have a look at the tide times to get back through the bridges at Yarmouth. You will need around 2 hours to get to Yarmouth and a further 2 hours from Yarmouth to Stracey Arms, so you have plenty of time if you wish to stop in Yarmouth to stock up or have lunch. Climb up the Stracey windmill to get excellent views of the area.

Day Six: Salhouse Broad

Cruise back up the river Bure past Horning and on to Salhouse Broad. Enjoy the peaceful surroundings and unique beach area on the broad.

Leave Salhouse at around 8am to get back to us on time in the morning.

Short Breaks

First Night: Ludham Bridge

1.5 hours from Ferry Marina to Ludham Bridge. There is a shop, cafe and The Dog Inn just down the road.

Day One: Stalham

Travel up to Barton Broad and drop your mudweight in the middle for a peaceful picnic. Then carry on up the River Ant to Stalham and moor up at Richardsons. There are plenty of pubs and takeaways in Stalham, also a Tesco's and some banks.

Day Two: Acle

Cruise back down the River Ant, hopefully spotting some kingfishers and otters along the way. Moor up on either side of the river at Acle. There are shops, pubs and banks in Acle, it is around a 20 min walk along a footpath into the village. The Bridge Inn is very good and has games for children.

Day Three: Potter Heigham

Take the short trip from Acle to Potter Heigham. Get some shopping at Lathams, have an ice cream by the river. Either stay at Potter Heigham overnight or travel closer to Horning for your return. The journey time from Potter to Horning is 2.5 hours.
